

OT 823 TA Requirements (Total of 30 hours)

March 12 – April 27, 2018

Weight = 1.5 credit units

Non-OT – 30 hours

Course Description

OT-823* Disability Theory

This course introduces the concepts of disability, citizenship and societal participation. Conceptual frameworks of disability and issues and implications of disability will be discussed along with Canadian health and social policies relating to people with disabilities.

Qualifications of TA

The ability to offer feedback to enable student improvement; the ability to document student performance and marks in a timely manner; familiarity with disability theory and policies an asset.

Duties:

The TA will be responsible for marking assignments, evaluating group presentations and facilitating group discussion on disability issues.