The Stroke Network of Southeastern Ontario and Queen's University School of Rehabilitation Therapy

Invite you to the

Professional and Clinical Development Series

Continuing education for clinicians, faculty, and other service providers providing care to individuals post-stroke and/or with other neurological conditions.

Neuroanatomy 'Brain Storm' Interprofessional Refresher Course

Saturday April 28, 2012
from 8:45 am-3:00 pm at the Anatomy Learning Centre, 3rd Floor,
Medicine Building,
15 Arch Street,
Queen's University,
Kingston, ON K7L 3N6

Workshop Description

Target Audience

This workshop is intended for clinicians and educators who provide care to stroke survivors and other neurological conditions. This includes all members of the Interprofessional team including, but not limited to, RN, NP, OT, PT, SLP, RD, psychology, SW, psychiatry and physicians.

Program Objectives

This program, through a hands-on, case based, interprofessional learning approach will give you the opportunity to review neuroanatomy of stroke and other neurological conditions. Participants will have the opportunity to:

- review the anatomy of neurological conditions and how it effects the person
- Increase understanding of care needs across the continuum of care
- Increase understanding of discipline specific scope of practice and how to improve patient care through interprofessional collaboration.

Special Guest

We are pleased to have Dr. Boyd join this continuing education session. Gord received his undergraduate degree in Psychology at Lakehead University in Thunder Bay. He then moved to Edmonton to do a PhD in Neuroscience, which was followed by a post-doctoral fellowship in Neuroanatomy at Queen's University. He stayed in Kingston for his MD and residency in Neurology. Gord began his critical care fellowship July 1st, 2011.
