

JOB POSTING

Occupational Therapist

22.5 hours per week with opportunity to increase to full time

Reach Child and Youth Development Society is searching for a dedicated pediatric Occupational Therapist to permanently join our team of professionals. Our team works with children from birth to 6 years of age, and their families, from our offices located in two different centres in Delta, which simplifies travel and scheduling. This is an exciting opportunity and it is open to New Grads.

Our work environment is supportive and inspiring, with the opportunity to work with a group of professionals with varying clinical and cultural experience. The Early Intervention program values creativity, research and program development, with opportunities to develop connections with community partners. In addition, we offer flexible hours, competitive wage and a leading benefits program. This position requires a commitment of 22.5 hours per week and there is opportunity to increase hours to full-time. For more information about Reach, please visit our website (reachchild.org).

The primary focus of our Early Intervention OT is to use specialized skills and knowledge to assist children to develop their maximum potential. The OT completes assessments, plans, and carries out individually or group-designed programs and activities for children with physical, cognitive, and/or sensory processing problems in order to enhance their ability to care for themselves, promote development, and maximize social competency.

Qualifications:

- Master's Degree in Occupational Therapy
- Registration or Eligibility of Registration with the College of Occupational Therapists of B.C. (C.O.T.B.C.)

Additional Information:

- Mentorship is available for New Grads
- All therapy equipment is provided (e.g. laptop, toys, assessments, access to journals etc.)
- Client visits can occur at Reach, families' homes, preschool and/or community settings.
- Travel is required within the City of Delta, with office space in South Delta and North Delta.
- This position requires the use of a personal vehicle

We are looking forward to hearing from you! Please send your covering letter and resume to recruit@reachchild.org. This position will remain open until filled.

Reach Child and Youth Development Society welcomes and encourages applications from members of racialized groups/visible minorities, Indigenous persons, persons with disabilities, persons of any sexual orientation, and persons of any gender identity or gender expression. If you require an accommodation through our hiring process, please include your request in the application email. We honor life experience and cultural backgrounds and take all forms of education into consideration.

We thank all applicants for their interest in employment with REACH. Only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

REACH is committed to protecting the safety and welfare of employees, clients, and the general public, and upholding the reputation and integrity of our society. For this reason, final applicants will be asked to undergo a criminal and credential background check.
