

All-hands-on-deck! Windward Healthcare is seeking a Full-Time Community Occupational Therapist to join our wonderful crew.

The successful candidate will value working with integrity, advancing clients' function, growing professionally, and connecting as a valued team member.

We offer strong support tailored to our skilled team of new and seasoned OTs— that's right, we're exclusively OTs! We work with a variety of populations, practice areas, and always collaborate with our clients' healthcare team (with consent of course), building instrumental professional relationships and awareness of community resources.

We value competence, confidence, and life-work balance. We offer competitive compensation and are known for our mentorship (and proud of it). Our crew meets regularly for clinical advancement and FUNctional social gatherings. Let's connect and navigate your next career steps, apply today!

Area of service: Metro Vancouver with opportunities for travel to Vancouver Island, and remote/underserved areas of British Columbia.
