Applications are invited for a Term Adjunct position in the Occupational Therapy Program, with responsibilities in OT801, Conceptual Models in Occupational Therapy. OT801 is a first-year graduate course taught in an integrated manner with other first year courses with an expected enrolment of 70 students. The percentage responsibility for the course is 50%. This position is available from August 1 to December 31, 2024.

The successful candidate will have a degree in occupational therapy and be eligible for registration in the College of Occupational Therapists of Ontario and at least three years of clinical or administrative experience in occupational therapy practice. A Master’s degree is required. The incumbent will be responsible for course coordination, instruction, teaching assistant supervision, and student evaluation. For more information about the responsibilities of this position please contact Setareh Ghahari, Associate Director (Occupational Therapy), School of Rehabilitation Therapy at otchair@queensu.ca.

The course description follows:

OT 801* - CONCEPTUAL MODELS IN OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY (CR 4)

This course introduces students to the central construct of occupation and to both the consequences and determinants of occupation. We will explore the most prominent theoretical models for understanding the relationship between occupation and health, and the factors that affect occupation. The course also covers the historical development of occupational therapy theory, and key theorists over the past 100 years. (4 credit units)

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's is strongly committed to employment equity, diversity, and inclusion in the workplace and encourages applications from Black, racialized/visible minority and Indigenous/Aboriginal people, women, persons with disabilities, and 2SLGBTQ+ persons.
