

Applications are invited for a Term Adjunct position in the Occupational Therapy Program, with responsibilities in OT875 Advanced Professional Practice. OT875 is a second-year graduate course taught in an integrated manner with other first year courses with an expected enrolment of 70 students. The percentage responsibility for the course is 33.3%. This position is available from November 1, 2023 to April 30, 2024.

The successful candidate will have a degree in occupational therapy and be eligible for registration in the College of Occupational Therapists of Ontario and at least three years of clinical or administrative experience in occupational therapy practice. A Master's degree is required. The incumbent will be responsible for course coordination, instruction, teaching assistant supervision, and student evaluation. For more information about the responsibilities of this position please contact Setareh Ghahari, Associate Director (Occupational Therapy), School of Rehabilitation Therapy at otchair@queensu.ca.

The course description follows:

OT 875 Advanced Professional Practice

This course is designed to provide students with opportunities to acquire an advanced understanding of the roles, rights and responsibilities incumbent with becoming an Occupational Therapist. Particular attention will be given to the legal and ethical parameters of practice, professional contributions and responsibilities within complex and changing environments and career development as advanced healthcare professionals. Course content is designed to be responsive to the shifting practice environment and offer students an opportunity to synthesize learning from other courses within the curriculum. (3 credit units) Prerequisites: all first-year courses or permission of the course coordinator.

The University invites applications from all qualified individuals. Queen's is strongly committed to employment equity, diversity, and inclusion in the workplace and encourages applications from Black, racialized/visible minority and Indigenous/Aboriginal people, women, persons with disabilities, and 2SLGBTQ+ persons. The academic staff at Queen's University is governed by a Collective Agreement (CA) between the Queen's University Faculty Association and the University which is posted at <https://www.queensu.ca/facultyrelations/qufa/collective-agreements-lous-moas>. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that considers an applicant's accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during the interview process, please contact Sandra Turcotte, Administrative Manager at turcotte@queensu.ca.

Review of applications will commence June 12, 2023 and will continue until the position is filled. Letters of application, accompanied by a curriculum vitae and the names of two referees, who may be contacted, are to be directed to Sandra Turcotte, Administrative Manager at turcotte@queensu.ca.